

Ways to Fundraise

Thank you for signing up to be a Party Animal for WellChild! We hope you enjoy the free activities and games in your downloadable pack. Here are some top tips on how to fundraise with your family. Anything you can give will be a huge help to WellChild at this uncertain time. WellChild is totally reliant on voluntary funding. With more than 60% of income lost through cancelled, or postponed fundraising events and activities we need your help more than ever.

- £5 will buy 100 surgical gloves for a family and their carers who so desperately need them during the pandemic
- £10 is enough for a two-week supply of surgical gloves
- £30 could pay for a package of face masks for a family and their carers

Here are just a few ideas on how you can fundraise:

1. Host an all you can eat picnic and charge your friends and family a fee to join in.
2. Put on your own show using the instruments you've made with Isaac Iguana and your costume's you created with Pippa, charge your friends and family to watch
3. Host a livestream fundraising challenge such as the 6 metre garden marathon (ask us for more details on how to set this up)
4. Pay £2 to enter our best dressed competition on Facebook and be in with the chance of winning a fabulous prize!
5. If singing and dancing isn't your thing, why not host your own dog agility at home, host a competition with your friends and see who can complete your DIY course the fastest. Charge £5 to enter. Host a Zoom party or gather in the garden (please follow the latest government guidelines for social distancing)
6. Host Yasmin Yak's Quiz on Zoom with all your friends. Charge £2 to enter and think of a fun prize for the winner.
7. If you have a birthday coming up why not host a Facebook Birthday Fundraiser?
